

Weston County Sheriff Bryan Colvard

I was born and raised in Colorado on a small ranch west of Denver. My father Gene, served in Vietnam as an Engineer in the Army. Later, he worked throughout the west as a Mining Engineer. Sadly, he passed away when I was seven from Cancer. My mother Kay was a teacher while raising two boys on her own. From a very early age I was given a great deal of responsibility and a strong sense of right and wrong.

I graduated from Evergreen High School and then attended Metro State where I received my Private Pilot's License. Coming from a public service-oriented family I then chose to enlist in the United States Navy. I married my wife, Cary in 1993. In 1996, I completed my active-duty obligation with the Navy and moved to Newcastle, where my wife's family is from. We have two amazing sons. Dusty enlisted in the United States Navy and has been a CTT for the past 8 years and has recently re-enlisted. He will be headed back to sea duty in the fall. Clayton graduated from North Central Texas College and is now an Operator for the Wyoming Refining Company. He married Katy Pannell and have two kids, Will and Eunella.

In 1998, I went to work for the Department of Corrections Boot Camp north of Newcastle where I achieved the rank of Sergeant. In 2006, I became a Deputy for Weston County's Sheriff's Office and then promoted to Undersheriff in 2009 for Sheriff Bill Ware. In November 2010, I was elected Sheriff.
